Grants Available: Salisbury-Rowan County Community Foundation Now Accepting Applications from Nonprofits

SALISBURY, N.C. – The Salisbury-Rowan County Community Foundation is currently accepting applications for its 2025 grant program. Eligible applicants include 501(c)(3) nonprofit organizations, congregations, governmental and educational institutions. Please note that for-profit businesses are not eligible for funding.

Grants will be awarded in support of a broad range of charitable purposes. Priority will be given to effective programs and projects that address a community need and will prioritize requests that focus on: arts and culture, early childhood and K-12 education, higher education, environment, human services, and workforce development. All proposed projects or programs must serve residents of Salisbury-Rowan County.

Award amounts will be determined based on the merit of the proposed project and available funds. Previous awards have ranged from $2,500 to $8,000, but the Foundation will consider awards up to $15,000 for a new and innovative project. Proposals for larger grant awards are encouraged to identify additional funding sources and partnerships with other organizations.

To begin the application process, visit fftcgrants.communityforce.com and select “Salisbury-Rowan County Community Foundation” to access the online application. Returning applicant organizations can log in to the Online Grants Center using their previously established ID and password. First-time applicant organizations can create a new account.

Completed applications must be submitted by NOON on Thursday, Sept. 4. The online grant application closes promptly at 12:00 p.m. and will not accept late submissions.
